

OCTOBER 2018

DECOMPOSING TEXAS RESIDENTIAL SEGREGATION

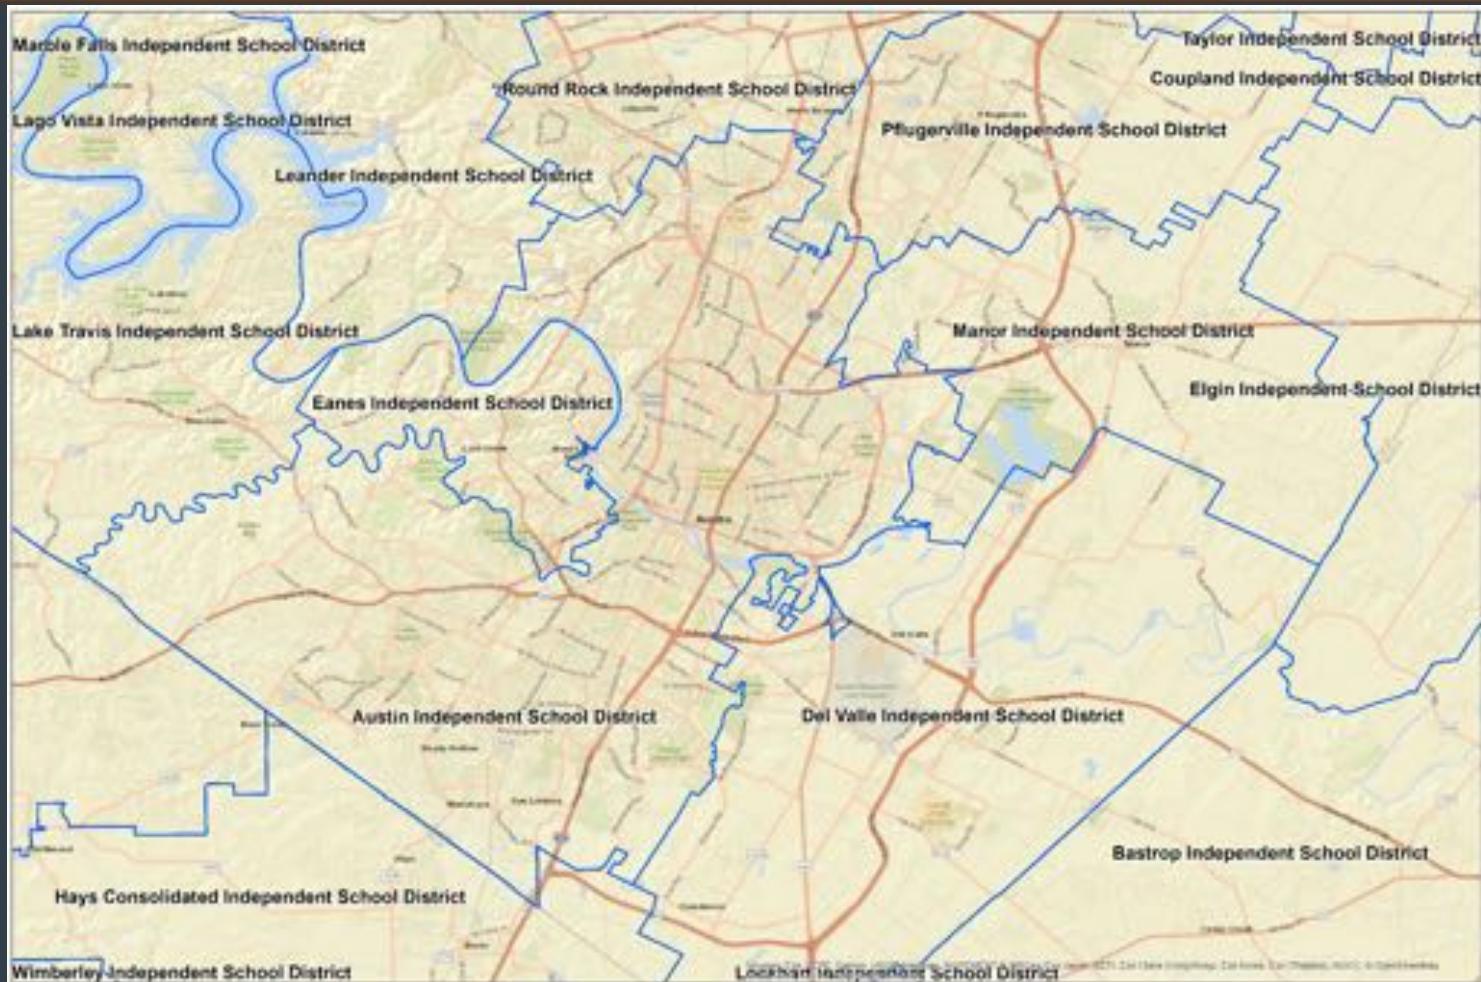

A comparison of residential segregation between and within Cities and School Districts

GABRIEL AMARO, PHD

Research Associate, The Latino Research Initiative, The University of Texas at Austin

Quick Intro

- Residential Segregation
 - What is it?
 - Trends
 - Pre-Civil Rights Act
 - Post-Civil Rights Act
 - Decomposing?

Decomposing Segregation

- Where are segregated communities originating from most?

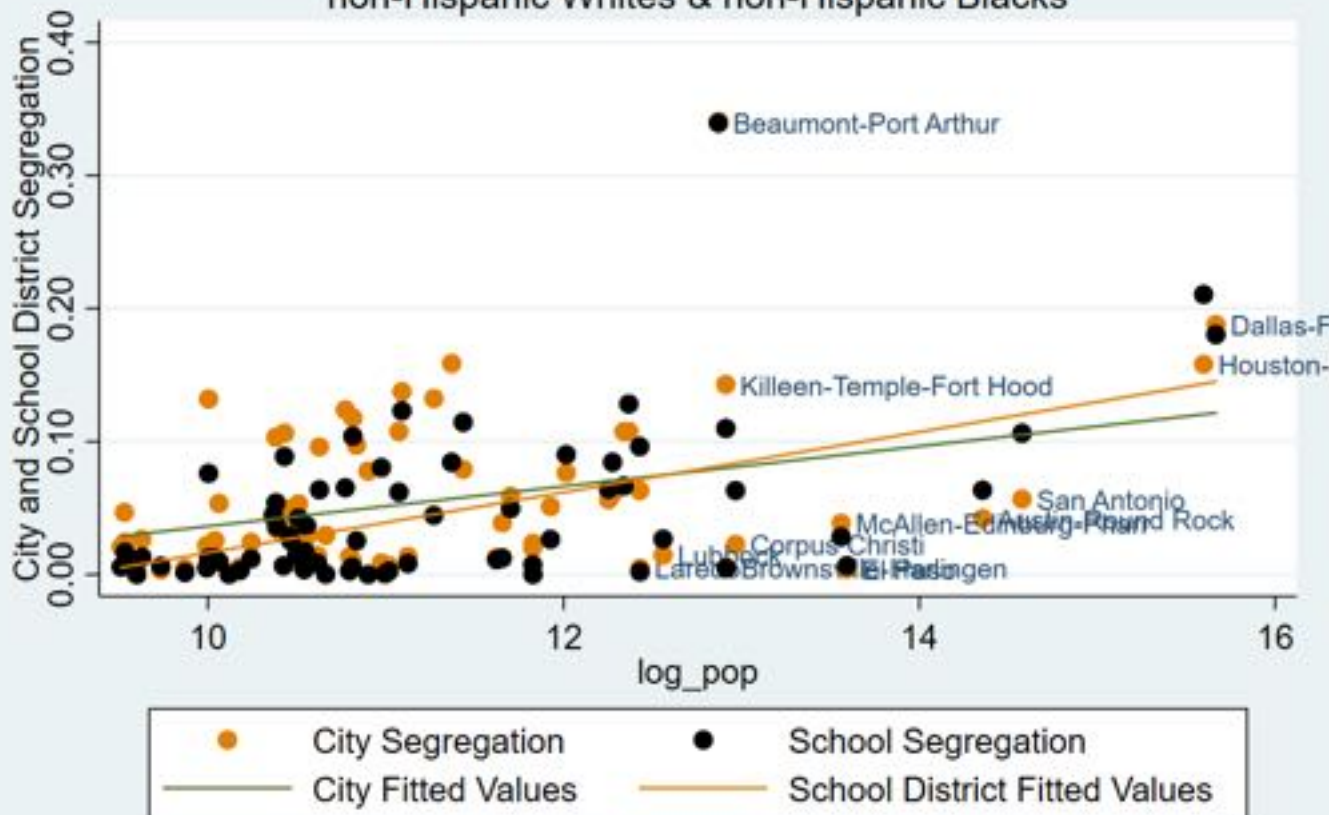

Results

Decomposed City and School District Residential Segregation
			Black			Latino
			Contribution			Contribution
	Unit Level	N	Score	Min	Max	Score	Min	Max
City	City	69	0.05565	0.00057	0.34035	0.05631	0.00163	0.16800
School	School District	69	0.04566	0.00000	0.33954	0.04612	0.00000	0.19533

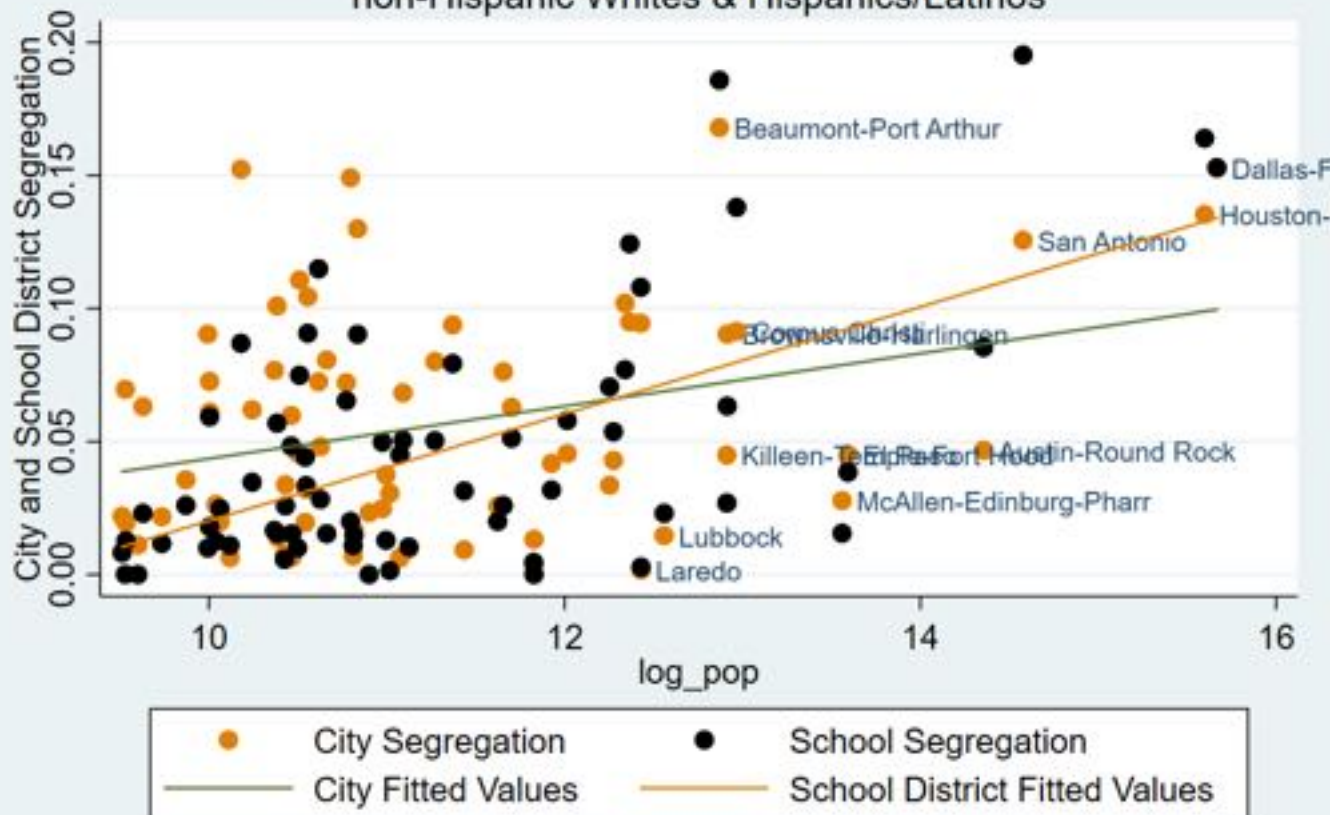

Results

Decomposed City and School District Residential Segregation - by Metro Size
		Black			Latino
Unit Level		Small <50,000	Medium 50k - <250k	Large >250k	Small <50,000	50k - <250k	Large >250k
City Segregation	City	0.0390	0.0651	0.0848	0.0527	0.0500	0.0787
School District	School District	0.0243	0.0514	0.0951	0.0307	0.0455	0.0909

Texas City and School District Segregation Comparison non-Hispanic Whites & non-Hispanic Blacks

Texas City and School District Segregation Comparison non-Hispanic Whites & Hispanics/Latinos

Conclusion